

*God made some of us autistic,
and that's how he likes us.*

Autistic Spectrum Church Service

2.30pm, Sunday, 6 April 2025
for one hour

at St Mary of Charity, Church Road, Faversham ME13 8GZ
and online.

A short service of words and music
for neurodivergent people,
led by autistic Christians.

Everyone will be free to take part in the service
and come and go as they please.
Fidget toys will be available.

This is explicitly not just a service for children.

Visit favershambenefice.org/autistic-spectrum-service for further details including service booklets, accessing the service online, and how to find the church.

